

FIRST READING: Exodus 19:2-6

From Rephidim the Israelites set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp. Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own, for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation."'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 99:2-3. 5. R. v.3 (R.) We are his people: the sheep of his flock.

1. Cry with joy to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness. Come before him, singing for joy. (R.)
2. Know that he, the Lord, is God. He made us, we belong to him, we are his people, the sheep of his flock. (R.)
3. Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love. He is faithful from age to age. (R.)

SECOND READING: Romans 5:6-11

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man - though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die - but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Mark 1:15

Alleluia, alleluia!
The kingdom of God is near;
repent and believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:36 - 10:8

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows:

'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'

REFLECTION:

There have been several moments in my life where I've known that I have had to respond to a need- and a call- greater than myself. I believe this sort of experience is at the heart of Jesus's message today,. Just as the twelve were called to go out, see the need in the world, and respond to it as the hands and feet of Christ, so too are we called through baptism to see the need in the world today, which is, perhaps, no so different from the need of people in Jesus day, and act on it guided by our faith in Christ. This call to love and service, is significant, and not something to be taken lightly or put off until the 'right time' -rather, it is a vocation to be lived every moment of everyday through our words, thoughts and actions. Where is Jesus calling you to be today? © God's Word Daily Reflection 2025

Article provided by Fr Dominic Byrne:

In today's Gospel, Jesus is speaking to the disciples, telling them that now your God is as close to you as a loving Father. A God that you can relate to and one that you do not need to fear, in fact the very opposite is true. Through you, he is going to give all the understanding that he can give to his children. Doubting that God exists, that God is a God of tenderness and as dear as any adoring parent are the two most common things that people could doubt. True fear is simply doubt and Satan's favourite tool. Often movies and TV depict the taking of life, as if it were a legitimate way of dealing with crime or with people who have done wrong. This desperate attempt neglects Jesus' own understanding that is based on our capacity to do good. We like Jesus should trust in this. Like the Apostles, we are called to trust in the slow pace at which genuine change occurs.

“Brothers and sisters, do not be afraid to welcome Christ and accept his power. Help the Pope and all those who wish to serve Christ and with Christ's power to serve the human person and the whole of mankind. Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors for Christ. To his saving power open the boundaries of States, economic and political systems, the vast fields of culture, civilization and development. Do not be afraid. Christ knows ‘what is in man’. He alone knows it” (First Homily of Pope John Paul II, n. 5).
